Sox sofas are highly resistant to wear and tear. They can be used as chaises, armchairs and stools to suit everyone's needs and make the space a place you love as quickly as possible. To achieve this, Love The collection combines sophisticated yet simple sofa frames.

SENCHO

The concept of simplicity and practicality is integrated, the appearance is neat and elegant, the seat is deep, and there is a soft cushion inside. The design style of Contour sofa series is elegant and eternal, and its lines echo the architectural modeling of curved armrests, making a unique appearance.

The shell armchair collection was inspired by a bakery where the sight of a rack of freshly baked shell-shaped breads, these leavened breads, is attractive. The idea turned into a sofa with thin tube side panels that surround and lift the plump seat cushions. The giant armchair offers superior comfort and sculptural appeal to office spaces, hotels and more.

YAWO

The Yawo sofa takes the oldest and most primitive element oracle bone as the design origin, and returns to nature through pure and tension-filled design to perceive tranquility and imagination. Inspired by the word "mountain", the clean and neat shape design, combined with the high seating surface, leaves a mysterious and silent image space. The arc is smooth and graceful, like a trickle. "Wo" means water. The shape of Yawo is just like its name, with a beautiful artistic conception of being surrounded by mountains and rivers.
